

63. (Amended) The method of Claim 20 wherein removing material along the second side of the substrate comprises removing material of the substrate from its second side.--

Enclosed is an appendix which indicates how the above version of Claims 60 and 63 is produced from the previous version of those claims. In the appendix, added material is underlined, and deleted material is in brackets.